EDUCATION TODAY

Jerome & Janet VanderHorst
Penn Global
Scholarship Fund

Dear Penn Global Family,

I am delighted to recognize this special time of year as we celebrate the latest group of deserving recipients of the Jerome & Janet VanderHorst / Penn Global scholarship program. Embracing the values of family and education, we understand the significance of supporting our exceptional team members and their families. The Jerome and Janet VanderHorst scholarship program is designed to empower and enrich the educational dreams of your loved ones, ensuring that the pursuit of knowledge remains a focal point of our company's family-oriented ethos.

At the heart of our organization, we recognize that family plays a vital role in our achievements. We firmly believe that investing in the education of your family members strengthens the bonds within our company and demonstrates our unwavering commitment to the overall growth and well-being of our extended family. Through these scholarships, the VanderHorst Family Foundation and other contributors from Penn Global open doors for your loved ones to chase their dreams, broaden their perspectives, and unlock their potential. Education has the transformative power to shape lives, enabling individuals to build a brighter future for themselves, their families, and their communities.

Let's foster an environment where family and education thrive, celebrating the boundless opportunities this scholarship program provides our extended family. I appreciate your steadfast dedication to our common values and encourage you to share news of this exceptional opportunity with your family members.

May the recipients of this Jerome & Janet VanderHorst scholarship program achieve great success in their educational pursuits!

Warm regards,

Stephen Gaffney
President
