EDUCATION TODAY

Jerome & Janet VanderHorst
Penn Global
Scholarship Fund

I am delighted to recognize this special time of year as we celebrate the newest group of deserving recipients of the Jerome & Janet VanderHorst / Penn Global Scholarship Program. Rooted in the enduring values of family and education, this program reflects our deep commitment to supporting not only our exceptional team members but also the aspirations of their loved ones.

As we look toward the future, we understand that investing in education is one of the most powerful ways we can shape a better tomorrow. The Jerome and Janet VanderHorst Scholarship Program is designed to empower the next generation—your children, your family members—to pursue their educational dreams and unlock their full potential. By doing so, we are not only enriching individual lives but also planting the seeds for stronger families, communities, and a more promising future for all.

At the heart of our organization is the belief that family is a cornerstone of success. Supporting the educational journeys of your loved ones strengthens the bonds within our company and reaffirms our shared commitment to growth, opportunity, and legacy. Through the generosity of the VanderHorst Family Foundation and the continued support of Penn Global, we are proud to open doors that will lead to lifelong learning and meaningful impact.

Let us continue to foster an environment where family and education thrive together. I encourage you to share this remarkable opportunity with your family members and celebrate the boundless possibilities it offers.

To all the 2025 scholarship recipients—may your academic journeys be filled with discovery, achievement, and the inspiration to lead future generations forward.

Warm regards,
